Friday 4 June - Teacher Only Day Professional Development - copy of email to all families

Dear Parents and Caregivers,

A reminder that the school will be closed for instruction on Friday, 4 June as we host the Kahukura Community of Practice Conference. This conference will focus on fostering well being of students' through the lens of creativity and will include the following keynote speakers:

- Dr Jean Clinton - Child Psychiatrist
- Kaila Colbin - CEO of Boma New Zealand
- Perry Rush - National President NZ Principals' Federation

This day, for all teachers from schools in the Kahukura Community of Practice, is part of our planned professional development and learning. This has been factored into the school's start and finish dates for the year to ensure that the school is open for the required number of days.

Ngā mihi,

Ross Hastings
